

CHANGES TO THE FINAL REPORT TEMPLATE

20070129

File: 02 Final Report - Lists, Executive Summary

Summary Table of Findings

- All words below the "Value" column changed to begin with lower case letters
- Indicator number 69, Spousal Age Difference: Two entries introduced, for women 15-19 and women 20-24
- Indicator number 44, Content of antenatal care: Four entries introduced, for "blood test taken", "blood pressure measured", "urine specimen taken", "weight measured"

List of Figures

- Figure CH.2 - "tentanus" changed to "tetanus"
- Figure CH.3 - "reahydration" changed to "rehydration"

List of Abbreviations

- The following have been added to the list:
  - ORT Oral rehydration treatment
  - FGM/C Female genital mutilation/cutting
  - CSPRO Census and Survey Processing System
  - GPI Gender Parity Index

File: 03 Final Report - Text

General

- Some parts of the main body of text had remained as Times New Roman. Made sure that "Book Antiqua 11" is used throughout.

Survey Objectives (page 2)

- Second bullet - "established by the Millennium Development Goals" changed to "established in the Millennium Declaration"

Data Processing (page 5, last line)

- Changed "... developed for by UNICEF this purpose." to "... developed by UNICEF for this purpose."

Footnote 5 (page 7)

- Changed "households bv wealth" to "households by wealth"

Child Mortality (page 9, last two sentences)

- Changed "In particular, the probabilities of dying among infants and children under 5 years living in the richest 40 percent of households are considerably lower than the national average. Differentials in under-5 mortality rates by background characteristics are also shown in Figure CM.1" to "In particular, the probabilities of dying among children living in the richest 40 percent of households are considerably lower than the national average. Differentials in under-5 mortality rates by background characteristics are shown in Figure CM.1”.

Oral Rehydration Treatment (page 21, first paragraph)

- Changed “diarrhoea b y background” to “diarrhoea by background”

Water and Sanitation (page 27, first sentence)

- “Safe disposal of a child’s faeces is the last stool by the child was disposed of by use of a toilet or rinsed into toilet or latrine” changed to “Safe disposal of a child’s faeces is disposing of the stool, by the child using a toilet or by rinsing the stool into a toilet or latrine”

Water and Sanitation (page 27, second paragraph, first sentence)

- Changed “the percentage of households with improved sources of drinking water and sanitary means of excreta disposal” to “.....the percentage of household member using improved sources of drinking water and sanitary means of excreta disposal....”

Footnote 7 (Page 28)

- Changed “amenhorrea” to “amenorrhoea”

Unmet Need (page 29, second paragraph, line 4)

- Changed “at thetime” to “at the time”

Unmet Need (page 29, third paragraph, last line)

- Changed “currently pregnant bt do not want” to “currently pregnant but do not want”

Primary and Secondary School Participation (page 34, last line)

- Changed “Female to male education ratio (GPI)” to “Female to male education ratio (or gender parity index - GPI)”

Primary and Secondary School Participation (page 35, paragraph 7)

- Changed “The net primary school completion rate and transition rate to secondary education is presented in Table ED.6” to “The net primary school completion rate and transition rate to secondary education are presented in Table ED.6”

Child Labour (page 37, first paragraph of the section, line 8)

- “at at” - removed one “at”

Child Labour (page 38, second paragraph of section)

- Changed “This definition allows to differentiate child labour from child work” to “This definition allows differentiation between child labour and child work”
- Changed “criteria explained before” to “criteria explained above”
- Added “Percentages do not add up to the total child labour as children may be involved in more than one type of work” to the end of the paragraph.

Child Discipline (page 38, first paragraph of section)

- Changed “three indicators” to “the two indicators”

Early Marriage and Polygyny (page 39, second paragraph)

- Changed “indictors” to “indicators”

Early Marriage and Polygyny (page 40, last paragraph of section)

- Changed “married/in union women with a difference of 10 or more years of age compared to their current spouse” to “married/in union women 10 or more years younger than their current spouse”.